Meeting minutes

The meeting chaired by the President was attended by all the 9 (nine) executive members. The President thanked each member for coming and for taking interest in the Association.

Below are detailed resolutions of the meeting

Resolutions

1. (1) Members present unanimously resolved that the Alumni Association should get registration with/under the Govt. Act as soon as possible.
For action, the President, the General Secy. and the Treasurer are to pursue the matter.
- (2) It was also unanimously resolved that whatever amount of money to be incurred for getting registration is sanctioned by the house, but detailed information to be placed in the house at the next meeting.
2. (1) Members of the Alumni Association should be informed about the importance of the Association and they should be made aware on the need to give help and support voluntarily or whenever the need arises.
- (2) It was also unanimously resolved that all executive members should be ever willing to give a helping hand - be it in cash or kind, as well as ideas, for the progress and development of the College.

The President thanked the house after which the General Secy read out the resolutions of the house.
